

First Thoughts...

"In one sense, the road back to God is a road of moral effort, of trying harder and harder. But in another sense it is not trying that is ever going to bring us home. All this trying leads up to the vital moment at which you turn to God and say, 'You must do this. I can't.'"

This quote from C. S. Lewis reminds me of a familiar passage near and dear to many of us (especially lifelong Baptists). The Apostle Paul wrote, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast (Eph 2.8-9).

There is a natural progression from our salvation experience to our serving the Lord. Paul adds, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do" (v.10).

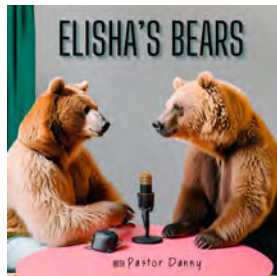

January 2026 is here, and it's absolutely hard to fathom that we're starting another year. And, there are those of us who typically make New Year's resolutions with the absolute intention of keeping them. Sometimes these commitments last a while, but usually around Ground Hog Day there's a significant attrition rate!

It's good to have goals, but it's also good to remember our relationship with Christ is not based upon how much we do and our planning and efforts. It is based upon God's grace and goodness in our lives; our service to the Lord is not about gaining favor but about being faithful to live one day at a time in obedience to Jesus.

I hope you'll continue to make involvement in church part of your New Year's resolutions—either to continue doing so or begin once again your connection with our family of faith.

There are some things only God can do. But, there are some things that we can do. May we learn this important difference and trust God with the results.

It's a privilege to start a new year in this town. I'm also grateful to serve the Lord with you as your Pastor, and look forward to what the Lord has in store for us as a family of faith this year. So, from my house to yours, "Happy New Year!"

Pastor Danny has a podcast called "Elisha's Bears." It's about life, faith, and the Bible, and the church in general. He'll have conversations with guests about various topics from time to time, too. You can follow the podcast on Spotify, Apple Podcast and Amazon Music. His most recent conversation was with Trey Ogle, Organist at Central Baptist Church, Bearden and Elaine Streno, CEO of Second Harvest Food Bank of East Tennessee.

Congratulations!
